1. About Us

At Bee Coin Wise (BCW), we offer a powerful opportunity to create sustainable passive income by simply doing the everyday things you already do. Whether it's buying groceries, fuelling your car, or shopping online, BCW lets you leverage your time and spending power to build wealth. Our unique platform connects you to a community-driven, self-sustaining system where your efforts contribute to your financial growth.

Welcome to the Future of Financial Freedom:

BCW is revolutionizing how people earn money. We don't just give you a temporary solution we provide you with a "fishing rod" for long-term financial freedom. We empower individuals to break free from traditional income sources and create wealth in an innovative, sustainable way.

While conventional reward programs offer generic discounts, BCW delivers a new approach, sustainable passive income. This is a unique platform that rewards you for everyday activities while giving back to the community.

The BCW Ecosystem A Community-Focused Platform:

BCW is built on the principle of Giving Back. Our marketplace offers members access to a wide range of products and services, allowing them to earn while enhancing their lives. We're constantly evolving, integrating new services, and providing a seamless experience through our app and API interfaces.

Building Trust and Sustainable Income BCW is designed for the future. As we meet the needs of a rapidly changing rewards landscape, we are committed to creating a platform driven by trust, collaboration, and sustainable growth. BCW will be a global leader in providing passive income opportunities to millions.

Your Opportunity for Growth:

BCW is intensifying its digital roadmap and forming exciting new partnerships to bring more income streams and services to members worldwide. Our platform is more than just a tool it's a global opportunity to change your financial future.

Join BCW today and become part of a community that's transforming the way people create wealth. This is where opportunity meets innovation, and where your financial future starts today.

At Bee Coin Wise, we are changing the way individuals' shop. Traditionally we as consumers would purchase a product or service from a service provider or retailer. Upon making a payment, usually using our credit or debit card, funds are deducted from our bank accounts. The recipient receives the payment, and you may not think about it again. However, every time you make a payment, there is a transaction fee associated with that transaction. As the client, you typically don't see the additional charges you might only pay a swipe fee, while the service provider or merchant pays the transaction fee. This fee can range from 2% to 5%, depending on which payment processor is used, such as VISA or MASTERCARD. The card machine company also takes a cut, as well as the receiving bank.

This is where we come in: with BCW, we will give the average person a portion of the transaction fee back as a reward. Additionally, by referring friends and family, you will receive referral rewards every time they shop.

This is made possible through our strategic partner, Celbux. Celbux is the payment processor that facilitates the wallet and all payment functionality.
